Faculty advisors can be found at departmental websites

You will be listed as an “Intended” major and have a professional advisor in our office. After you complete basic requirements for your major (which varies by major) you will be “Officially Declared” and will receive a Faculty Advisor for your remaining semesters at ECU (with exception of Criminal Justice students who will transition to a different professional advisor).

Our Advising Philosophy is that advising is a developmental process. Advisors assist students in clarifying life goals and in developing educational programs to realize these goals. Although the ultimate responsibility for making decisions about life goals and educational plans rests with the student, the academic advisor is in the unique position of helping the student identify and assess the alternatives and the consequences.

Objectives of Advising are to help students:

- Understand policies & procedures at ECU.
- Define your educational objectives which utilize your interests, aptitudes, and career goals.
- Understand general education requirements and major/minor requirements so that you make consistent progress towards a timely graduation.
- Understand the relationship between your chosen major and your future plans (career/professional).
- Utilize campus resources to improve your academic experience (Advisor, Professors, ECU website, Career Center, Pre-Professional Advising Center, Pirate Academic Success Center, Math lab, Counseling Center, etc.).
- Explore extracurricular activities to enhance your education and overall college experience.
- Understand that your success as a college student is your responsibility.

FAQs:

How to Request an Appointment with your Professional Advisor Once you are assigned to someone in our center, you will be emailed a link to their bookings calendar. You can then schedule a phone, video or in person appointment. Please provide detailed information so advisor can prepare for appointment. You are expected to meet with your advisor every semester to discuss your progress and receive your new registration PIN. Failure to meet with your advisor may result in delay of registration.

Appointments No Show Policy/Cancellation of Appointments We recognize that situations arise that may create the need to re-schedule or cancel an appointment. If you must cancel, please try to cancel with at least a 24 hour notice to allow other students to secure that spot. During our peak advising periods, appointment times are a premium. In an effort to be fair to all of our students, if you fail to keep your appointment, you will be considered a “no-show.” If the advisor sees you have a pattern of “no-shows” you will not be allowed to schedule an appointment until after the last registration window opens (which will delay your registration).
Preparing for your Advising Appointments Before meeting with your advisor, students should be prepared! See detailed steps on our website under “registration process”.

Drop-In Availability We strive to be accessible to our students, but there is typically 1 advisor to every 300-500 students. If you need assistance with only a quick answer that will take 5 minutes or less (such as you need a referral or you need to drop a class), you may drop into our office and an advisor will assist you if available. The office staff may request that you schedule an appointment if they believe your inquiry cannot be satisfactorily addressed within 5 minutes OR if the advisor is booked with appointments/meetings. To be certain you don’t have to wait—it is best to schedule an appointment or send your question via email.

Registration In order to register for classes, you will need to obtain a registration PIN from your academic advisor. This PIN changes each semester. Because you register for the next semester in the middle of a semester, you will not have final grades. You should discuss your academic progress with your advisor and let him/her know (honestly) how you are doing in each of your courses. If you fail to meet the pre-requisites for courses in which you have signed up for in the next semester, it is your responsibility to adjust your schedule accordingly. Contact your advisor with any questions.

Your “Intended” Major You enter ECU as a student with an “intended” major. It is natural to change majors! Please communicate with your advisor when you are uncertain as to your major or if you want to change majors.

Graduate/Professional School If you are interested in a graduate/professional program (law, medicine, pharmacy, etc.) please communicate this to your advisor! You will also be expected to research these programs and learn the requirements for the various schools in which you plan to apply (but we can help guide you). The Center for Pre-Professional Advising is also a resource to you.

Degree Works Degree Works is a tool used to help you view your requirements for graduation. You may also create a plan of study to map out your degree requirements while at ECU. A plan will help you graduate on time and on budget.

WORDS OF ADVICE TO ADVISEES:

- College is NOTHING like high school. The course work, topics covered, and depth of materials are more complex, set at a faster pace, and require more/better study habits. College also gives you more responsibility academically (choosing classes, making your own schedule, etc.) while simultaneously removing you from your high school support system, putting more responsibility on you outside of academics, too.
- Get to know your instructors. Visit them during their office hours to ask questions about material you find difficult or to pursue ideas more in depth. If you are considering a major in that discipline, talk with them about it. Ask questions and make connections.
- Seek help as soon as you start to struggle. ECU offers many free resources such as the Career Center, Pre-Professional Advising Center, Pirate Academic Success Center, University Writing Center, Math lab, Counseling Center, and more. These are all included in tuition so take advantage of them when needed.
- Create a study schedule/plan because you will have to study. (It is recommended you study 2-3 hours for every hour you are in class. Ex: if you are taking 15 hours, you need to study an average of 30-45 hours per week.) Think of being an ECU student as your full-time job.

Revised 6/7/24
• Attend every class, even if there is no attendance policy (trust us on this.). Attendance is KEY to your success.
• Prepare before every class. Read the assigned chapters before class so you will understand the topics covered.
• Review after every class. It will make studying so much easier if you review a little each day vs cramming before a major test or assignment.
• Prioritize. Remember why you are here.
• Get involved! Have fun—there are tons of student clubs, organizations, sports, leadership opportunities, Greek Life choices, volunteer options, and so much more.
• Don’t stress too much. Just do the best you can!
• Don’t “over plan” your life. It is good to have a plan, but a lot can change between now and the time you graduate. Don’t be surprised if those plans change and be open to those changes.
• FINALLY, communicate with your advisor! We can help but only if we know what’s going on.
