Why study Foreign Languages and Literatures?

- Multilingual professionals have more future opportunities in North Carolina and beyond!
- By speaking another language, you broaden your possibilities for a meaningful career and will increase your chances of getting the job you want.
- Demand for Bilingual Workers has more than doubled in 5 years in the United States. 630,000 bilingual job postings in 2015.
- According to The Economist, for an American graduate, a second language could be worth—on a conservative estimate—up to $128,000 over 40 years.

What can I study in FLL?

- Language Courses in Spanish, French, German, Russian, and Japanese.
- Major or Double Major in Hispanic Studies, French, and German!
- Minor in Hispanic Studies, French, German, and Russian Studies
- You can also study Latin and Ancient Greek and minor in Classical Studies.

How do I get started?

- Decide what language will serve your personal and professional goals!
- Sign up for that course.
- Have you taken the language before or you want to study Spanish? Take the Placement Exam: https://foreign.ecu.edu/resources/placement-exams/
- Questions? Contact Dr. Katherine Ford FordK@ecu.edu

What should I expect?

- Small classroom experience.
- Personalized advising.
- The possibility to Study Abroad.

What courses are offered in Fall 2019?

Foreign Languages

- French 1001, 1002, 2003, and 2004
- German 1001, 1002, 2003, and 2004
- Greek 1001 (1002 is offered in the spring)
- Japanese 1001 and 2003 (1002 and 2004 are offered in the spring)
- Latin 1001 and 2003 (1002 and 2004 are offered in the spring)
- Russian 1001 and 2003 (1002 and 2004 are offered in the spring)
- Spanish 1001, 1002, 2003, and 2004

Cultural Courses (all taught in English)

- Foreign Language 1551 Introduction to Russia: Land of the Firebird (Humanity)
- Foreign Language 1662 Introduction to Hispanic Studies (Humanity and Global Diversity)
- Foreign Language 2600 Literature in Translation: The Holocaust (Humanity and Global Diversity)
- Foreign Language 2662 Special Topics in Hispanic Cinemas (Humanity and Global Diversity)
- Foreign Language 2665 Don Quixote ONLINE course (Humanity and Global Diversity)
- Foreign Language 2680 Grimm’s Fairy Tales ONLINE course (Humanity and Global Diversity)